Sport brings Jay out of his shell

Your support at work

Seeing Jay's cheeky smile and his confidence playing basketball, you would never believe he was once a shy boy bullied out of primary school because of his intellectual disability.

Jay will soon be taking on Australia's best basketball teams in the Special Olympics National Games in Adelaide.

Jay is very proud and is brimming with a confidence fuelled by his desire to score "lots of points".

"I like playing with my team, they're my friends, and wearing my red and blue uniform."

The best part is that two of his mates from Endeavour Foundation Industries will also be competing at the Games in their chosen sports.

Hanging out with friends is his favourite part of working for Endeavour. His job in the industrial cloth operation is a close second.

It would be fair to say that Jay has come a long way—who knows how much further the brilliant personality unleashed by his love of sport will take him.

Persistence Pays Off for NSW grandparents...

Although still in shock after news of their Endeavour Prize Home win, retirees Mr & Mrs J & A from Sutton, New South Wales have already begun planning holidays with their kids and grandkids.

Having supported Endeavour for over 30 years, they are thrilled with their double win: the $749,588 Pelican Waters home on the Sunshine Coast and $30,000 in gold bullion for buying more than one ticket.

The bonus was particularly welcome, as their retirement funds suffered badly in the global financial crisis.

The couple were on their way to a grandchild's birthday when they received the call from Endeavour's Prize Home Manager Wilma Burton.

"This is absolutely fantastic! We never thought this would happen to us," Mrs A said.

"We have bought tickets for about 30 years and have been on advance purchase for the last 17 years. Obviously persistence pays off!"
